HW Home

Sure, you could swing by the chain stores and buy the “looks like” or “inspired by” furniture. Or, you could go to HW Home and get the real deal: Jonathan Adler pillows, Thomas O'Brien headboards, Mitchell Gold sofas, and Oly Studio chandeliers. Local owners Ron Werner and Jim Hering use their well-trained eyes to make sure every piece—from upholstery piping to Greek key ornaments—is up to designer standards. Both traditional and contemporary furniture get the final flourishes they deserve. Bonus: Everything's sold at retail price—designer looks without the designer markups here. Multiple locations, www.hwhome.com.
