MADE IN COLORADO

The 26 stylish home buys we crave from Colorado's most innovative designers, artisans, creators, and trendsetters.

MODERN CRAFT

After founding Milkweed furniture, David Larabee partnered with friend Dexter Thornton to debut DoubleButter in November of last year. The Sheep credenza ($3,800 at P Design Gallery, 720-259-2516; www.doublebutter.com) epitomizes the modern shapes, clean angles, and durable, sustainable materials of this line.

SNAP TO IT

Angela Schwab's INV/ALT Design's signature three-ounce ceramic Snap Cups ($50 at P Design Gallery, 720-259-2516; www.invalt-design.com) feature large metal clothing snaps, allowing you to interchange the mugs' handles. Interactive, hooray!

STYLISH THROWBACK

Boulder's uncle/nephew design duo, Thom Vernon and Orion Creamer, channel a 1950s aesthetic for their retro-inspired Big Chill appliances, but each new fridge ($3,400, Mod Livin', 720-941-9292; www.bigchillfridge.com) boasts all the modern amenities you need, including an icemaker, water dispenser, and, most important, self defrost. Bonus: Rachael Ray uses a Big Chill on the set of her morning show.

ELEGANT COMFORT

Influenced by historical design movements like Weiner Werkstätte or Classic Modern, designer Judy Godec describes her Boulder-based Linea Vita bedding as "sumptuous, functional art." We like the Modulinea bedding (in ether honey and champagne) ($75-$950 at HW Home, 303-394-9222; www.lineavitadesign.com).
