NATALIE TYSDAL AND LIBBY WEAVER,
LOOKING GREAT EVERYDAY

SEPTEMBER 2009 $5.95

After we got the stars of Everyday with Libby & Natalie to don a combination of the latest menswear and the hottest lingerie for our cover shot this month (which we scrambled to shoot early in Tysdal's pregnancy before things got too Demi Moore), we had no qualms about asking these television professionals to interview each other for us as well. After nine years reporting the news on channel 31 for Weaver and seven years in the Denver market for Tysdal, the two were given the chance to headline their own show, taking an in-depth approach to everything from American Idol callbacks to ways depression can affect children. Here's what happened when the interview experts turned their skills on each other.
