

ONYX BOWL

SKU: PHI1106-625

Onyx is usually seen with splashes of white within the natural banding, however, it is quite rare to see a piece of natural onyx that is completely white. The White Onyx Bowls boast a milky white shade with subtle brown veining that puts the organic nature of the precious mineral on full display. Each bowl is entirely one-of-a-kind and will have variations in color, pattern, shape, and size; allowing you to personally select your own unique souvenir straight from the depths of the earth.
