The Reclaimed wood used for this piece shows a lot of character, including spalted area to enhance the organic aspect of the piece. This characteristic showcases darker details resulting from the fungus that naturally occurs in the trees, creating unique shapes. Prior to use, the wood undergoes meticulous treatment and drying processes to ensure durability and stability. The bleaching process has no impact on the spalted sections, keeping it black, while the rest of the wood changes color. Finish: EnoWood: Mexican Oak Dimensions: W 68" x D 52" x H 16"
