The Petrified Wood Round Cocktail Table showcases the remarkable beauty of nature through a genuine petrified wood top, where millions of years of natural formation have created intricate patterns, rich mineral coloration, and organic texture. Resting on a clean, black metal base, the table balances raw natural character with modern design. The freeform shape and distinctive markings ensure that no two pieces are exactly alike, making each table a true statement piece. Both functional and sculptural, this cocktail table brings warmth, history, and one-of-a-kind artistry to any living space. Please note: Due to the natural characteristics of petrified wood, each table is one of a kind and will vary in shape, color, pattern, and size. These organic variations are part of what makes every piece unique. Dimensions: W 59" x D 47" x H 18"
